

The MADI Museum & Gallery

cordially invites you to the opening of

"CELEBRATION OF GEOMETRIC ART"

From February 25 - To May 22, 2005

Friday, February 25, 2005
6:00 PM - 9:00 PM

www.madimuseum.org

3109 CARLISLE, DALLAS, TX 75204
Tel 214-855-7802, Fax 214-855-5479

80 Artists from 20 countries honor
CARMELO ARDEN QUIN
Founder of the MADI Movement

Allumbaugh, Alston, Arden Quin, Arena, Arthun, Asis, Bányász, Barbanti, Barbosa, Barisani, Bertolio, Bèzie, Binet, Boros, Borzobohaty, Bourmaud, Branchet, Bulletti, Caceres Sobrea, Chàvez, Carreño, Castro, Cecere, Contreras Brunet, Cornolò, Cortese, Cruz-Diez, De Alba, De Luca, Desireau, De Tora, Drei, Ezsiàs, Forlivesi, Frangi, Fulchignoni, Gandini, Girodon, Gregorio, Gold, Guerrieri, Guevara Moreno, Guyhàrt, Jara, Herrera, Ilgen, Jaramillo, Kidner, Le Donne, Leinardi, Lependorf, Lombardi, Lubar, Luggi, Maesano, Marinho, Mascia, Matzon, Mavropoulos, Maxwell, Milo, Minoretti, Mori, Suzuki, Neyrat, Nicolato, Osborne, Pedragosa, Perrottelli, Piemonti, Pilone, Pinna, Presta, Prosi, Roitman, Rosa, Silva, Soto, Strada, Thrasivoulou-Spence, Tufano, Ulbrich, Varlotta, Zangara.

3109 CARLISLE STREET
DALLAS, TEXAS 75204
U.S.A.

An extensive dialogue carried on since the 1950's between Latin American artists and today's prevailing current of European and North American Geometric Art

2005

A Dallas gateway to innovative and unexplored geometric art

MUSEUM & GALLERY

MADI

To R S V P, please call 214-855-7802
fax 214-855-5479

Or e-mail dorothy@madimuseum.org

Space is limited. Please reserve your place today.
Valet parking

